This is UNEVALUATED Information This is UNEVALUATED Information This is UNEVALUATED Information This is UNEVALUATED Information The prior to 4 September 1953, the 31 st Mtz Hv Arty Brig was stationed at Vvskov (P 50/N 71) and was subordinate directly to the 2d Military District. The brigade was quartered in low brick buildings in the northern section of the cantonment on the northeastern perimeter of Dedice (P 50/N 61). The brigade was organized into the brigade headquarters, three battalions, one headquarters battery and one NOO school. Each battalion consisted of three batteries. The brigade also included one survey battalion of 2CC or 300 men which had the design gericka gelostrelecka jednotka (artillery survey unit) (MDJ). The 1st, 2d and 3d Batteries of the 1st Bn vero organized into one headquarters platoon, one signal platoon and one gun platoon. Each of the gun platoons of the 2d and 3d Bttries had four, and the gun platoon of the 1st Bttry had two model 37-S (S for Soviet) 152-mm guns which were towed by Tatra-111 trucks. The batteries of the 1st Bn numbered 50 to 60 Czechs and Slovaks. The organization of the 2d Bn and, presumably, that of the 3d Bn, corresponded to that of the 1st Bn. All battalion had 152-mm guns. The NCO school of the brigade was organized into one headquarters platoon, one signal platoon and one gun platoon and totalled about 125 men. The soldiers of the beadquarters platoon were equipment with model 65 N met 1st Bn.		CCAPIDENTIAL	25
ATE OF CONTENT. ATE OBTAINED DATE PREPARED 8 February 1954 REFERENCES	COUNTRY		annual control of the second control of the
ATE OF CONTENT. ATE OBTAINED DATE PREPARED	OPIC 31st Heavy Artillery Brig	ade in Vyskov	The second second community and the second s
DATE OF CONTENT. DATE OBTAINED DATE PREPARED 25X DATE PREPARED 25X DATE PREPARED 25X DATE PREPARED DATE PREPARED DATE PREPARED 25X DATE PREPARED DATE DATE PREPARED DATE PRE	METERS AND	Martin programme, which the control of the control	UIJJ40
DATE OBTAINED DATE PREPARED	VALUATION	PLACE OBTAINED	The state of the s
AGES 2 ENCLOSURES (No. & TYPE) 25X This is UNEVALUATED Information This is UNEVALUATED Information This is UNEVALUATED Information The brigade was quartered in low brick buildings in the northern section of the cantonment on the northeastern perimeter of Dedice (F 50/N 51). The brigade was organized into the brigade headquarters, three battalisms, one headquarters battery and one NCO school. Each battalian consisted of three hatteries. The brigade also included one survey battalion of 200 ones which had the design markets go the last Bn were organized into one headquarters platoon, one signal platoon and one gun platoon. Each of the gun platoons of the 2d and 3d Batteries of the last Bn were organized into one headquarters platoon, one signal platoon and one gun platoon. Each of the gun platoons of the 2d and 3d bitties had four, and the gun platoon of the lat Bittry had two model 37-S (5 for Soviet) 152-mm guns which were towed by Tatta-lll trucks. The batteries of the last Bn numbered 50 to 60 Czechs and Slowaks. The organization of the 2d Sn and, presumably, that of the 3d Bn, corresponded to that of the lat En. All battulin had 152-mm guns. The NCO School of the brigade was organized into one headquarters platoon, one signal platoon and one gun platoon and to talled about 125 men. The soldiers of the headquarters platoon were equipped with model 96-N rifles, old 25X had been supported by the soldiers of the headquarters platoon were equipped with model 96-N rifles, old Sochool was equipped with field telephones and small radio sets. No radio trucks were observed. The guns for the school were detached by the lat En. 1. Officers of the brigade headquarters included Colonel Frantisek Vitek, commander; Lieutenant Koulonel Udirleh Bedruik, depty brigade commender and, simultaneously, commander of the lat Bn, Major Kratochvill (fmu), chief of staff; Senior Lieutenant Sural(fmu), political officer; Najor Gerny (fmu), supply officer; lieutenant Svobod (fmu), althetics officer; sure lieutenant Koulonel (fmu)	DATE OF CONTENT	en en
This is UNEVALUATED Information The brigade was quartered in low brick buildings in the northern section of the cantonment on the northeastern perimeter of Dedice (P 50/N 61). The brigade was organized into the brigade headquarters, three battalions, one headquarters battery and one NOO school. Each battalion consisted of three batteries, The brigade also included one survey battalion of 200 or 300 men which had the design in maricka delostralecka jednotka (artillary survey unit) (PDJ). The latt, 2d and 3d batteries of the lat be were organized into one headquarters platoon, one signal platoon and one gun platoon of the gun platoons of the 2d and 3d bitries had four, and the gun platoon of the lat Bitury had two model 37-S (S for Seviet) 152-mm guns which were towed by Tatra-lll trucks. The batteries of the 1st Bn numbered 50 to 60 Czechs and Slowaks. The organization of the 2d Bn and, presumably, that of the 3d Bn, corresponded to that of the lat Bn. All battalion had 152-mm guns. The NOO school of the brigade was organized into one headquarters platoon, one signal platoon and one gun platoon and totalled about 125 men. The soldiers of the headquarters platoon were equipped with model 98-B rifles, old light machine suns. old Soviet pistols and four bacocks with electric fuzes. The soldiers of the headquarters platoon were equipped with model of specify were a modernized in the soldiers of the beadquarters platoon were equipped with field telephones and small radio ests. No radio trucks were observed. The guns for the school were detached by the lat Bn. Officers of the brigade headquarters included Colonal Frantisel Vitek, commander; Lieutenant Knoela (fine), biters is faired formal, supply officer; lieutenant Survay officer; lieutenant Survay officer; lieutenant Survay officer; lieutenant Korenek (fmu), observation officer; Lieutenant Sarranek (fmu), supply officer; lieutenan			ebruary 1954
REMARKS This is UNEVALUATED Information This is UNEVALUATED Information This is UNEVALUATED Information This is UNEVALUATED Information The prior to 4 September 1953, the 31 st Mtz Hv Arty Brig was stationed at Yvakov (P 50/N 71) and was subordinate directly to the 2d Military District. The brigade was quartered in low brick buildings in the northern section of the cantonment on the northeastern perimeter of Dedice (P 50/N 61). The brigade was organized into the brigade headquarters, three bettaions, one headquarters battery and one NO school. Each bettailon consisted of three butteries. The brigade also included one survey bettailon of 200 or 300 men which had the design menticak gelostralecks ignorated into one headquarters platoon, one signal platoon and one gun platoon. Each of the gun platoons of the 2d and 3d Butteries of the 1st Bn were organized into one headquarters platoon, one signal platoon and one gun platoon of the 1st Bttry had two model 37-8 (S for Section 1)2-emguns which were towed by Tatra-111 trucks. The batteries of the 1st Bn numbered 50 to 60 Caschs and Slovsks. The organization of the 2d Bn and, presumably, that of the 3d Bn, corresponded to that of the 1st Bn numbered 50 to 60 Caschs and Slovsks. The organization of the 2d Bn and presumably, that of the 3d Bn, corresponded to that of the 1st Bn. In the batteries of the last Bn. Section and totalled about 125 men. The soldiers of the headquarters platoon were equipped with model 96-N rifles, old 25N light machine zuns. Old Sovist platoen were equipped with model 96-N rifles, old 25N light machine zuns. Old Sovist platoen were equipped with model 96-N rifles, old 25N light machine zuns. Old Sovist platoen were equipped with model 96-N rifles, old 25N light machine zuns. Old Sovist platoen were equipped with model 96-N rifles, old 25N light machine zuns. Old Sovist platoen were equipped with model 96-N rifles, old 25N light machine zuns. Old Sovist platoen were equipped with model 96-N rifles, old 25N light machine zuns. Old Sovist			The contract of the contract o
This is UNEVALUATED Information 1. Prior to 4 September 1953, the 31 st Mtz Nv Arty Brig was stationed at Vyskov (P 50/N 71) and was subordinate directly to the 2d Military District. 2. The brigade was organized in low brick buildings in the northern section of the cantonment on the northeastern perimeter of Dedice (P 50/N 61). 2. The brigade was organized into the brigade headquarters, three battalions, one headquarters battery and one NCO school, Each battalion consisted of three batteries. The brigade also included one survey battalion of 2CC or 3CO men which had the design of mericka gelestrelexia jednotka (artillery survey unit) (MBJ). The 1st, 2d and 3d Batteries of the 1st Bn were organized into one headquarters platoon, one signal platoon and one gun platoon. Each of the gun platoons of the 2d and 2d Buttries had four, and the gun platoon of the 1st Butry had two model 37-S (S for Soviet) 152-mm guns which were towed by Tatra-111 trucks. 2 The batteries of the 1st Bn numbered 50 to 60 Czechs and Slowaks. The organization of the 2B Bn and, presumably, that of the 3d Bn, corresponded to that of the 1st Bn. All battalion had 152-mm guns. The NGO school of the brigade was organized into one headquarters platoon, one signal platoon and one gun platoon and totalled about 15m end. The soldiers of the headquarters platoon were equipped with model 98-N rifles, old light machine guns. Old Soviet pistols and four baccokas with electric fuses. 25N the hozookas which he could not specify were a modernized model of the Panzerfaust of the former German Army. The signal platoon of the NCO school was equipped with field belephones and small radio sets, or radio trucks were observed. The guns for the school were detached by the 1st Bn. 1 3. Officers of the brigade headquarters included Colonel Frantisek Vitek, commander; Lieutenant Colonel Oldrich Bedrnik, deputy brigade commender and, simul taneously, commander of the 1st Bn; Najor Kratochvii (fmu), chief of staff; Senior Lieutenant Svoboka (fmu), other of supply;		The second control of the second seco	25X1
This is UNEVALUATED Information 1. Frior to 4 September 1953, the 31 st Mtz Hv Arty Brig was stationed at Yvskov (P 50/N 71) and was subordinate directly to the 2d Military District. 2. The brigade was quartered in low brick buildings in the morthern section of the cantonment on the northeastern perimeter of Dedice (P 50/N 61). 2. The brigade was organized into the brigade headquarters, three battalions, one headquarters battery and one NCO school. Each battalion consisted of three batteries, The brigade also included one survey battalion of 2CO or 300 men which had the design in mericka delostrelecka jednotka (artillery survey unit) (NDJ). The 1st, 2d and 3d Batteries of the 1st Bn were organized into one headquarters platoon, one signal platoon and one gun platoon. Each of the gun platons of the 2d and 3d Bitries had four, and the gun platoon of the 1st Bttry had two model 37-S (S for Soviet) 152-mm guns which were towed by Tstra-111 brucks. The batteries of the 1st Bn numbered 50 to 60 Czechs and Slovaks. The organization of the 2d Bn and, presumably, that of the 3d Bn, corresponded to that of the 1st Bn. All battalion had 122-mm guns. The NOC oschool of the brigade was organized into one headquarters platoon, one signal platoon and one gun platoon and totalled about 125 men. The soldiers of the headquarters platoon were equipped with model 98-N rifles, old 25N light machine guns, old Soviet pistols and four bazooks with electricases. The batcoins which he could not specify were a moderniaed model of the Panzerfaust of the former German Army. The signal platoon of the NCO school was equipped with field telephones and small radio sets, No radio trucks were observed. The guns for the school were detached by the 1st Bn. 3. Officers of the brigade headquarters included Colonel Frantisek Vitek, commander; Lieutenant Colonel Oldrich Bedrnik, deputy brigade commender and, simultaneously, commander of the 1st Bn, Major Kratochvil (fmu), single officer; Lieutenant David (fnu), signal officer; Major Germy (frun)		& TYPE)	MATERIAL THRESH A AND OPEN MATERIAL PROPERTY OF A STATE OF THE STATE O
1. Prior to 4 September 1953, the 31 st Mtz Hv Arty Brig was stationed at Yvskov (F 50/N 71) and was subordinate directly to the 2d Military District. 2 The brigade was quartered in low brick buildings in the northern section of the cantonment on the northeastern perimeter of Dedice (P 50/N 61). 2. The brigade was organized into the brigade headquarters, three battalions, one headquarters battery and one NCO school. Each battalion consisted of three butteries. The brigade also included one survey battalion of 2CC or 3CO men which had the design in mericka gelostedlecka jednotka (artillery survey unit) (MDJ). The lat, 2d and 3d Batteries of the lat Bn were organized into one headquarters platoon, one signal platoon and one gun platoon. Each of the gun platons of the 2d and 3d Bttries had four, and the gun platoon of the lat Bttry had two model 37-5 (S for Soviet) 152-mm guns which were cowed by Tatra-111 trucks. The batteries of the 1st Bn numbered 50 to 6C Cachs and Slovaks. The organization of the 2d Bn and, presumably, that of the 3B Bn, corresponded to that of the 1st Bn. All battalion had 152-mm guns. The NCO school of the brigade was organized into one headquarters platoon, one signal platoon and one gun platoon and totalled about 125 men. The soldlers of the headquarters platoon were equipped with model 98-rifles, old 1ight machine suns. old Soviet pistols and four basockas with electric fuzes. The bacockas which he could not specify were a modernized model of the Fanzerfaust of the former German Army. The signal platoon of the NCO school was equipped with field telephones and small radio sets. No radio trucks were observed. The guns for the school were detached by the 1st Bn. 1 3. Officers of the brigade headquarters included Colonel Frantisek Vitek, commander; Lieutenant Colonel Oldrich Bedrnik, deputy brigade commander and, simultaneously, commander of the 1st Bn; Major Kratochvili (fmu), cuiper of staff; Senior Lieutenant Sural(fmu), political officer; Major Gerny (fmu), supply officer; Lieutenan	EMARKS	CONTRACTOR OF THE PROPERTY OF	with the distribution of the contract of the c
1. Frior to 4 September 1953, the 31 st Mtz Hv Arty Brig was stationed at Yvskov (F 50/N 71) and was subordinate directly to the 2d Military District. 2 The brigade was quartered in low brick buildings in the northern section of the cantonment on the northeastern perimeter of Dedice (P 50/N 61). 2. The brigade was organized into the brigade headquarters, three battalions, one headquarters battery and one NCO school. Each battalion consisted of three butteries. The brigade also included one survey battalion of 2CC or 3CO men which had the design in mericka gelostrelecka jednotka (artillery survey unit) (MDJ). The 1st, 2d and 3d Batteries of the 1st Bn were organized into one headquarters platoon, one signal platoon and one gun platoon. Each of the gun platoons of the 2d and 3d Ettries had four, and the gun platoon of the 1st Ettry had two model 37-5 (S for Soviet) 152-mm guns which were towed by Tatra-III trucks. The batteries of the 1st Bn numbered 50 to 60 Czechs and Slovaks. The organization of the 2d Bn and, presumably, that of the 3B En, corresponded to that of the 1st En. All battalion had 152-mm guns. The NCO school of the brigade was organized into one headquarters platoon, one signal platoon and one gun platoon and totalled about 125 men. The soldiers of the headquarters platoon were equipped with model 98-rifles, old 1ight machine guns. old Soviet platols and four bacockas with electric fuzes. The bacockas which he could not specify were a modernized model of the Fanzerfaust of the former German Army. The signal platoon of the NOC school was equipped with field telephones and small radio sets. No radio trucks were observed. The guns for the school were detached by the 1st En. 1 3. Officers of the brigade headquarters included Colonel Frantisek Vitek, commander; Lieutenant Colonel Oldrich Bedrulk, deputy brigade commander and, simultaneously, commander of the 1st En; Major Germy (fnu), supply officer; Lieutenant Sural(fnu), political officer; Major Cerny (fnu), supply officer; Lieutenant Sural (fnu	ELLAS RESPONDANCE LANGUAGE CONTRACTOR CONTRA	A CONTRACTOR CONTRACTO	д. SND 2-dol kn star - избилась технічник немен немен немен правит участизаційного участизаційного нементо надзито В
1. Prior to 4 September 1953, the 31 st Mtz Hv Arty Brig was stationed at Vyskov (P 50/N 71) and was subordinate directly to the 2d Military District. 2 The brigade was quartered in low brick buildings in the northern section of the cantonment on the northeastern perimeter of Dedice (P 50/N 61). 2. The brigade was organized into the brigade headquarters, three bettalions, one headquarters battery and one NCO school. Each battalion consisted of three batteries. The brigade also included one survey battalion of 2CO or 300 men which had the dealgn tion mericka gelostreleeks denotta (artillery survey unit) (NDJ) The 1st, 2d and 3d Batteries of the 1st Bn were organized into one headquarters platoon, one signal platoon and one gun platoon. Each of the gun platoons of the 2d and 3d Bitries had four, and the gun platoon of the 1st Bitry had two model 37-S (S for Soviet) 152-mm guns which were towed by Tatra-111 trucks. The batteries of the 1st Bn numbered 50 to 60 Czechs and Slowaks. The organization of the 2d Bn and, presumably, that of the 3d Bn, corresponded to that of the 1st En. All battalion had 152-mm guns. The NCO school of the brigade was organized into one headquarters platoon, one signal platoon and one gun platoon and totalled about 125 men. The soldiers of the headquarters platoon were equipped with model 98-N rifles, old 25X light machine guns. old Soviet pistols and four bacookas with electric fuzes. the bacookas which he could not specify were a modernia-ed model of the Panzerfaust of the former German Army. The signal platoon of the NCO school was equipped with field telephones and small radio sets. No radio trucks were observed. The guns for the school were detached by the 1st Bn. 1 3. Officers of the brigade headquarters included Colonel Frantisek Vitek, commander; Lieutenant Colonel Oldrich Bedrink, deputy brigade commander and, simultaneously, commander of the 1st Bn, Major Kratochvili (frm), chief of staff; Senior Lieutenant Sural(frm), political officer; Major Germy (fnm), supply officer; L	Inis is UN	and the second contract of the second contrac	and the second s
1. Prior to 4 September 1952, the 31 st Mtz Nv Arty Brig was stationed at Vyskov (F 50/N 71) and was subordinate directly to the 2d Military District. 2 The brigade was quartered in low brick buildings in the northern section of the cantonment on the northeastern perimeter of Dedice (F 50/N 61). 2. The brigade was organized into the brigade headquarters, three bettalions, one headquarters battery and one NCO school. Each battalion consisted of three tatteries. The brigade also included one survey battalion of 200 or 300 men which had the design mericka gelostrelecka jednotka (artillery survey unit) (MDJ). The 1st, 2d and 3d Batteries of the 1st Bn were organized into one headquarters platoon, one signal platoon and one gun platoon. Each of the gun platoons of the 2d and 3d Bittries had four, and the gun platoon of the 1st Bttry had two model 37-S (S for Soviet) 152-mm guns which were towed by Tatra-111 trucks. The batteries of the 1st Bn numbered 50 to 6C Caechs and Slowaks. The organization of the 2d Bn and, presumably, that of the 3d Bn, corresponded to that of the 1st Bn. All battalion had 152-mm guns. The NCO school of the brigade was organized into one headquarters platoon, one signal platoon and one gun platoon and totalled about 125 men. The soldiers of the headquarters platoon were equipped with model 98-N rifles, old light machine guns. old Soviet pistols and four bacookss with electric fuses. State bazookas which he could not specify were a modernized model of the Panzerfaust of the former German Army. The signal platoon of the NCO school was equipped with field telephones and small radio sets. No radio trucks were observed. The guns for the school were detached by the 1st Bn. 3. Officers of the brigade headquarters included Colonel Frantisek Vitek, commander; Lieutenant Colonel Oldrich Bedrinik, deputy brigade commender and, simultaneously, commander of the 1st Bn; Najor Kratochvil (fml), olief of staff; Senior Lieutenant Sural(fmu), observation officer; Major Gerny (fml), supply officer; Lieute		A STATE OF THE PROPERTY AND ADDRESS OF THE PROPERTY ADDRESS OF THE PROPERTY AND ADDRESS OF THE PROPERTY ADDRESS OF THE PROPERTY ADDRESS OF THE
1. Frior to 4 September 1953, the 31 st Mtz Hv Arty Brig was stationed at Vyskov (P 50/N 71) and was subordinate directly to the 2d Military District. The brigade was quartered in low brick buildings in the northern section of the cantonment on the northeastern perimeter of Dedice (P 50/N 61). 2. The brigade was organized into the brigade headquarters, three battalions, one headquarters battery and one NOO school. Each battalion consisted of three tatteries. The brigade also included one survey battalion of 200 or 300 men which had the design gericks gelostrelecks jednotks (ertillery survey unit) (MDJ). The 1st, 2d and 3d Batteries of the 1st Bn were organized into one headquarters platoon, one signal platoon and one gun platoon. Each of the gun platoons of the 2d and 3d Bittries had four, and the gun platoon of the 1st Bttry had two model 37-S (S for Soviet) 152-mm guns which were towed by Tatra-111 trucks. The batteries of the 1st Bn numbered 50 to 60 Czechs and Slovaks. The organization of the 2d Bn and, presumably, that of the 3d Bn, corresponded to that of the 1st Bn. All battalion had 152-mm guns. The NCO school of the brigade was organized into one headquarters platoon, one signal platoon and one gun platoon and totalled sout 125 men. The soldiers of the headquarters platoon were equipped with model 98-N rifles, old light machine guns. old Soviet pistols and four bazooks with electric fuses. State bazookas which he could not specify were a modernized model of the Fanzerfaust of the former German Army. The signal platoon of the NCO school was equipped with field telephones and small radio sets. No radio trucks were observed. The guns for the school were detached by the 1st Bn. 3. Officers of the brigade headquarters included Colonel Frantisek Vitek, commander; Lieutenant Colonel Oldrich Bedrnik, deputy brigade commender and, simultaneously, commander of the 1st Bn; Najor Kratochvil (fnu), singely officer; Lieutenant Sursal(fnu), observation officer; Major Gerny (fnu), supply officer; Lieutenant Sursa			25)
four, and the gun platoon of the 1st Bttry had two model 37-S (S for Soviet) 152-mm guns which were towed by Tatra-111 trucks. The batteries of the 1st Bn numbered 50 to 60 Czechs and Slovaks. The organization of the 2d Bn and, presumably, that of the 3d Bn, corresponded to that of the 1st Bn. All battalion had 152-mm guns. The NCO school of the brigade was organized into one headquarters platoon, one signal platoon and one gun platoon and totalled about 125 men. The soldiers of the headquarters platoon were equipped with model 98-N rifles, old light machine guns. old Soviet platols and four bazookas with electric fuzes. the bazookas which he could not specify were a modernized model of the Panzerfaust of the former German Army. The signal platoon of the NCO school was equipped with field telephones and small radio sets. No radio trucks were observed. The guns for the school were detached by the 1st Bn. 3. Officers of the brigade headquarters included Colonel Frantisek Vitek, commander; Lieutenant Colonel Oldrich Bedrnik, deputy brigade commander and, simultaneously, commander of the 1st Bn; Major Kratochvil (fnu), chief of staff; Senior Lieutenant Sural(fnu), political officer; Major Cerny (fnu), supply officer; Lieutenant Siche (fnu), observation officer; Lieutenant Safranek (fnu), motor transport officer; Lieutenant Koudela (fnu), survey officer; Senior Lieutenant David (fnu), signal officer; Lieutenant Korenek (fnu), chief of supply; Junic Lieutenant Ruzicka (fnu), athletics officer; and Captain Vorac (fnu), brigade medical officer. Senior Lieutenant Miroslav Nechutry and the vermond of the	The brigade was quartine centorment on the port	rtered in low brick buildings i	n the northern section of Lieutenant Colonel Oldrich Bedrnik, deputy brigade commander and, simultaneously, commander of the lat Bn; Major Kratochvil (fnu), chief of staff; Senior Lieutenant Sural(fnu), political officer; Major Cerny (fnu), supply officer; Lieutenant Liska (fnu), observation officer; Lieutenant Safranek (fnu), motor transport officer; Lieutenant Koudela (fnu), survey officer; Senior Lieutenant David (fnu), signal officer; Lieutenant Korenek (fnu), chemical warfare officer; Senior Lieutenant Svoboda (fnu), chief of supply; Junic Lieutenant Ruzicka (fnu), athletics officer; and Captain Vorac (fnu), brigade medical officer. Senior Lieutenant Miroslav est the survey of the NCO cabeal. Moior Kensely (fnu), tent the commander of the survey.	2. The brigade was organized: headquarters battery and or The brigade also included a tion mericka gelostrelecka jedne Batteries of the lst Bn wer platoon and one gun platoon	heastern perimeter of Dedice () into the brigade headquarters, ne NGO school. Each battalion o one survey battalion of 200 or otka (artillery survey unit) () re organized into one headquart n. Each of the sun platoons of	three battalions, one onsisted of three batteries. 300 men which had the designs DJ). The lst, 2d and 3d ers platoon, one signal the 2d and 3d Bittries had the cantonment on the north 2. The brigade was organized and the brigade also included the following tricks gelostrelecks jedne and one gun platoon four, and the gun platoon guns which were towed by Town of the 1st Bn numbered 50 and, presumably, that of the had 152-mm guns. The NCO soplatoon, one signal platoon soldiers of the headquarter light machine guns. old South NCO school was equipped with the sequence of the sequipped with the sequipped	heastern perimeter of Dedice () into the brigade headquarters, ne NGO school. Each battalion of one survey battalion of 200 or otka (artillery survey unit) () re organized into one headquart n. Each of the gun platoons of of the lst Bttry had two model atra-lll trucks. to 60 Czechs and Slovaks. The of he 3d Bn, corresponded to that chool of the brigade was organi n and one gun platoon and total resplatoon were equipped with n viet pistols and four bazookas the bazookas which he could t of the former German Army. The	three battalions, one onsisted of three batteries. 300 men which had the designe DJ). The 1st, 2d and 3d ers platoon, one signal the 2d and 3d Bttries had 37-S (S for Soviet) 152-mm The batteries reganization of the 2d Bn of the 1st Bn. All battalions zed into one headquarters led about 125 men. The odel 98-N rifles, old with electric fuzes. not specify were a modernize signal platoon of the addo sets. No radio trucks

Corment. The abolition of the rank of senior captain is confirmed, Army Corps General Malec (fnu) is known as Artillery Inspector or Artillery Commander-believed that most of the tanks available are Soviet models.

-in-Chief with the MNO.

